Today all over the world, we see the end-time prophecy of woes, terrors and horrors being fulfilled before our very eyes. Jesus speaking of these times said, “And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things, must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows.” (Matt. 24:6-8)

However, in spite of these horrors, God has ordained to exempt His people as He did in Egypt and all through the forty years of their journey to the promise land.
Many people around us may be asking?

♦ But who are you to claim that your case is different? — Ezek. 9:6

♦ What makes your case different? — Gal. 3:13-14/ Gal. 6:17

♦ What discoveries have you made to claim that your case is different? — 1 Pet. 2:9

♦ What makes you believe that your case is different? — Eph. 2:6

♦ But who are you to think that what affects others will not affect you? — Col. 1:13

♦ What confidence is this in which you trust? — Is. 36:4-20

♦ Some may even say with 'authority', don't let anybody deceive you, no one will be exempted from the impending global economic disaster. Sure? — Gen. 47:15-27

♦ Scriptures admonish us that we should be ready always to give an answer to every man that asks us the reason of the hope that is in us — 1 Pet. 3:15

♦ We must understand that dwelling in the secret place of scriptures, in order words, operating by divine secrets as contained in scriptures is key to our exemption from the economic gloom that lies ahead of this generation — Ps 91:1-16

For example, we saw from scriptures how God exempted Israel from the following plagues that came upon Egypt:
swarm of flies, which connotes decadence and stench – Exo.8:20-24 dead of cattle, which represents the dearth of businesses and careers – Exo.9:1-7 destruction by hails and tempest, which connotes devastation and destruction – Exo.9:18-26

gross darkness, which connotes confusion, stagnation and frustration and failure – Exo.10:21-23 scourge of death – Exo.11:4-7

But thank God, our exemption from the evils of the day has been established by redemption – 1 Pet. 2:9

Furthermore, the Bible acknowledges that:

♦ The last days are the greatest days of the church of Christ on earth – Mic. 4:1-2/Is. 2:1-3

♦ But while the present economic meltdown shall continue to grow worse, God's covenant people shall not feel the heat thereof – Mal.4:1-4/Ps 33:18-19

♦ God will be raising an army of saints that will make a difference in the midst of these horror – Joel 2:1-11/Obad. 1:21

♦ For every one of us who is walking in the covenant of abundance, when men shall say there is casting down, we shall be saying there is lifting up – Job.22:21-29/Ps 37:18-19

♦ In these last days, God will be putting a difference between those who are serving Him and those who are not – Mal.3:17-18/Job36:11

Therefore, the same way He exempted the children of Israel from the plagues that came upon Egypt, God shall be separating the redeemed from all the evils of these last days.

God shall be setting a seal of exemption upon the fore-heads of all His people and that will not allow the destroyer to come near our habitation all through the year 2017 and beyond – Ezek.9:6/Ps 105:13-15

Therefore, the theme of year 2017 is:

My Case is Different – Gen. 47:15-27

As the Lord lives, every day shall be Christmas for all His covenant children in the year 2017. Amen.

Jesus is Lord!
